

A CENTRE FOR

Ministry

Engagement with communities of people of other faiths, contributing to mutual understanding and social cohesiveness in Australian society

Education

Development of communities, making known the theological and other resources found in the Catholic and Christian tradition which support interfaith engagement, and

Research

Especially on women's role and participation in the religious faith traditions and women's contribution to building societies of peace, justice and care of creation

Trish Madigan is a Dominican sister who is experienced in interfaith dialogue in many contexts.

She is a foundation member of the Women's Interfaith Network (WIN) and a Christian representative on the Australian National Dialogue of Christians, Jews and Muslims (ANDCJM). In 2002 Trish participated in a Consultation of the Pontifical Council for Inter-Religious Dialogue for the Asian region held in Seoul, South Korea. Between 2004 and 2008 she has been an Australian delegate at four regional inter-governmental conferences of the International Dialogue on Interfaith Cooperation for Peace and Harmony.

Trish completed her doctoral studies at the University of Sydney on the topic of Women in Islam and Catholicism.

Contact:
Dr Trish Madigan op
CIMER
PO Box 353
Strathfield AUSTRALIA 2135
E: interfaith@opeast.org.au
W: www.cimer.org.au

