BEARING the LIGHT:

HONORING OUR SPIRITUAL FOREMOTHERS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3,
7:30 PM

AT THE
ROCKEFELLER MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Dear Friends of the Council:

We want to invite you and your community to join us on November 3rd at 7:30pm for a powerful interfaith celebration of the courage, wisdom and love of the women who have gone before us.

“Bearing the Light: Honoring Our Spiritual Foremothers” marks the inauguration of the Women’s Task Force of the Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions. The Women’s Task Force seeks to assure that women’s voices are heard at the vital nexus of women’s issues, religion, and spiritual leadership.

“Bearing the Light: Honoring Our Spiritual Foremothers” is free and open to the public, and will take place at Rockefeller Chapel, at 5850 South Woodlawn Avenue on the campus of the University of Chicago. It will feature the all-women’s African percussion ensemble Diamana Diya, as well as classical Indian dance and the soulful sounds of chant and music from Baha’i, Christian, Hindu, Jain, Jewish, Muslim, Native American, and other spiritual traditions. You can RSVP at the Facebook event page at www.tiny.cc/november3

A free dessert reception, with spirited conversations, will follow. It’s going to be a beautiful evening, and we hope you can be there with us on November 3 at 7:30pm!

Yours faithfully,

Anne Benvenuti, Phyllis Curott, Kathe Schaaf
